Last night, at approximately 10pm, a car crashed into the front of Smith's Bakery, a small business in the heart of the city. Witnesses described the scene as "chaotic" as two individuals jumped out of the vehicle and rushed into the store.

"I was just closing up shop when I heard the crash," said Jane Smith, owner of the bakery. "I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw them smashing the display cases and grabbing handfuls of cash." <q cite="Jane Smith">It was like they had no regard for anyone or anything.</q>

<blockquote>

The thieves made off with an estimated $5,000 in cash and merchandise. The bakery's front window was shattered, and the interior was left in disarray. The owners are still trying to come to terms with the senseless act of violence. "It's not just about the money," said John Smith, Jane's husband. "It's about the feeling of safety and security that's been taken away from us."

The police are currently reviewing security footage and are asking anyone with information to come forward. In the meantime, the Smiths are left to pick up the pieces and try to rebuild their business. As one witness noted, "It's just another example of the kind of senseless crime that's becoming all too common in our city."
